This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Franciscus Petrarcha,[2] vir sui sæculi doctissimus, dicere solitus est, se ex nullo poëta Latino evasisse meliorem, quam ex Horatio.

Horace[3] nous instruit comme un ami commode,
Sans trop s'assujettir à l'art, à la méthode.
Son tour vif et naïf enchante ses lecteurs,
Et leur fait mépriser ses fades traducteurs.

[Horace still charms with graceful negligence,
And without method talks us into sense;
Will like a friend familiarly convey
The truest notions in the easiest way, &c.

POPE, Essay on Criticism, Part III. vs. 653.]

Qu' Horace[4] connut bien l'élegance Romaine!
Il met le vrai dans tout son jour,
Et l'admiration est toujours incertaine
Entre la pensée et le tour.
Sublime, familier, solide, enjoué, tendre,
Aisé, profond, naïf et fin,
Digne de l'Univers, l'Univers pour l'entendre Aime à redevenir Latin.

deligendis, ut Petronii verbo dicam, curiosa ejus felicitas: præcipuus in Satira, doctor in poëtica arte unice audiendus: eximius philosophus in Epistolis. In carmine elegantiam et peritiam numerorum ei tribuit Ovidius, in argumentis sapientiam et calliditatem Persius, diligentiam elucubratam Juvenalis, sublimitatem auctor vetus sed non nominatus, jucunditatem, gratiam, varietatem Quintilianus, solertiam Apuleius, in sermone puritatem et nitorem idem Quintilianus: in Satiris eum esse emendatissimum Lactantius. Imitatus est in Odis potissimum cum Pindaro Alcæum et Sapphonem: epitheta sumsit ab Homero et Sophocle. In libro Epodon secutus est Archilochum, in Satiris Romanos illos Ennium et Lucilium. Sed Horatio[1] nihil hoc in genere præstantius est, qui ut omnes vitæ rationes in Satiris suis complexus fuit, ita flosculos suppeditat, quibus mirum in modum ornare sermonem nostrum possumus. Ego certe Satiras ejus omnes memoriæ mandari velim, tum in vita ipsa, tum in sermone usui futuras. Elegantissima omnia sunt, dictio nitida, et, si numeros tollas, sermoni soluto apta. Urbanitas in eo mira, sales candidi, ex abdito eruta sententiæ, argutiæ non coactæ, meræ Charites, omni occasioni aptæ. Summum in illo viro ingenium fuit, nec immerito Augusto et Mæcenati in deliciis, cujus genium satiricum nemo ex antiquis, nemo e recentioribus, ulla imitatione assecutus est. Jo. Caselius, in Νέῳ suo, Horatium vitæ magistrum commendans, 'Affirmare non dubitem,' inquit, 'qui in hoc poëta multum operæ posuerit, eumque ita perdidicerit, ut ejus versus non in ore natos aut extemporales, ut putatur, non memoria teneat, (nec vero non sunt, qui hoc præstiterint,) sed probe intellectos ad usus vitæ transferat; hunc posse rebus suis suorumque recte in omnibus aliquid boni consilii invenire: nec minus idem patriæ recte consulat, præsertim si et ad historiam se conferat, spectans id, quod potissimum ostendimus.' Bentleio in notis p. 64. Horatius dicitur 'magnus novator,' quod ex Græcis in Latinam linguam felici audacia alia transtulit, alia, ut 'male feriati' vocabulum, ipse primus effinxit. Confer Jac. Frid. Reimanni historiam vocabulorum Latinæ Linguæ p. 43. sq. Alius Horatius, de quo Martialis IV. 2. Sed longe plures hoc nomine commemorat Jo. Glandorpius in Onomastico Romano p. 402. sq. Poëmata.

Scripta Horatii ita recenset Sidonius Apollinaris Carmine IX. vs. 218.

> Non quod per satiras Epistolarum,
> Sermonumque sales, novumque Epodon,
> Libros Carminis, ac Poëticam artem,
> Phœbi laudibus et vagæ Dianæ
> Conscriptis voluit sonare Flaccus.

Hæc universa Horatii hodie extant.

Carminum sive Odarum libri IV. ad C. Cilnium Mæcenatem, licet primam Odam libri primi (uti non paucos Virgilii versus) pro spuria habuit Franc. Guyetus, doctus, sed nimis delicati fastidii Aristarchus. Librum quartum ex longo intervallo addere jussit Augustus, ut in Vita Horatii Suetonius memoriæ prodidit.

Epodon liber unus, perinde ut libri Carminum, vario genere versuum proodico et epodico scriptus, de quibus consulendus Aldi Manutii tractatus de XIX. generibus metrorum Horatii [supra p. 41. sq.]

Epodon libro subjicitur Carmen Sæculare, quod Horatio componendum injunxit Augustus anno U. C. 736. ætatis Horatii 40. Meminit auctor vitæ, et Sidonius innuit per 'Phœbi laudes et vagæ Dianæ Conscriptas.' Sunt, quibus carmen sæculare videtur etiam lib. I. Oda 21. et lib. IV. Oda 6. Vide Petri Taffini lib. I. de ludis sæcularibus cap. 16. et 17. in Tomo VIII. Thesauri Ant. Romanarum.

Sermonum libri IV. ad eundem Mæcenatem, epico carmine conscripti; quorum duo priores complectuntur Satiras[1] ab argumento, posteriores duo ad docendum et instruendum facti, Epistolarum vulgo veniunt nomine, quorum in altero Ethicum philosophum, in altero Criticum profitetur. Alter constat Epistolis viginti, alter vero tribus, una ad Augustum[2] de Poëtis, præcipue

1 Nonnullas Satiras ante Carmina quædam in Epodon libro scriptas ab Horatio esse disputat Sam. Petitus Observatt. I. 9.

Romanis; secunda ad Julium Florum; tertia ad Pisones patrem et filios, a Charisio diserte Epistolæ nomine memorata, quæ vulgo, ut Sidonii etiam ætate factum, sejuncta a reliquis, Fabii auctoritate Inst. Or. III. 8. inscribitur Liber de arte poëtica, in quem Porphyrio observat, Horatium congessisse præcepta Neoptolemi Pariani de arte poëtica, non quidem omnia, sed eminentissima. Hæc Epistola si cum duabus prioribus jungatur, mole et versuum numero fere æquabunt priorem Epistolarum librum, aut certe parum inter se uterque different, ut pridem notavit Dan. Heinsius. Horatii Satiras Fulvius Ursinus in Virgilio cum Græcis scriptoribus collato p. 3. veteris Codicis Vaticani fidem secutus, Eclogas appellat. Sic quoque Cruquius, haud improbante Barthio ad Statium T. I. p. 351. Liber Satirarum secundus Trebatio in quibusdam Codd. inscribitur. Compositæ sunt carmine epico, sed sermoni propiore, ut ipse lib. Sat. I. 4. 41. scribit: 'neque si quis scribat, uti nos, Sermoni propiora, putes hunc esse poëtam.' Ab his Satiris 'mordacem' vocat Flaccum Sidonius: Petrus Blesensis subinde 'Ethicum,' ut Epist. 150. et alibi. Quid ecloga, quid satira exigat, eleganter tradit Jo. Anton. Campanus lib. V. Epist. 24. Versus quatuor et quinquaginta ex Epistola ad Florum, a versu 87. ad 140. in alteram ad Augustum transferendos, non post vs. 219. ut Dan. Heinsius, sed post 117. collocandos esse, singulari diss. in Acad. Inscriptionum Paris. a. 1702. 15. Nov. probatum ivit Jo. Boivinius. Versus octo in quibusdam Codd. et editionibus præfixi lib. I. Satiræ 10. et a Gyraldo dialog. IV. de poëtis, Guil. Cantero aliisque pro Horatianis habiti: Lucili, quam sis mendosus teste Catone, &c. tanquam spurii a Criticis rejiciuntur. Vide H. Stephanum, Lævinum Torrentium, alios. In libri secundi Epistola 2. transpositi versus a 87. ad 140. ut præter Dan. Heinsium in notis, Jo. Boivinius diss. in memoriis literariis Trevoltinis a. 1703. Sept. p. 268. sqq. Salmasius in Solinum p. 5. Horatii nomine laudat hunc versum: Nulla dies abeat, quin linea ducta supersit: sed non est Horatii, nec alterius veteris poëtæ Latini, ut notatum Carolo Dati in vita Apellis p. 107. bibl. Aprosiana p. 273. Sermonum libros, Horatii exemplo, præter alios scripsit Pet. Scholirius, eques et senator Antverp. a. 1635. defunctus, quos in plerisque ejusmodi scriptis mecum potissimum loquaris. An vereris, ne apud posteros infame tibi sit, quod videaris familiaris nobis esse?' Expressitque eclogam, cujus initium est: 'Cum tot sustineas et tanta negotia solus.'" commentariis etiam illustravit Albertus le Roy,[1] Eremita Augustinianus, Herbipoli, 1683. 8.

Ars Poëtica scripta ad Pisones, patrem et filios: hos enim alloquitur versu 24. 'Pater, et juvenes, patre digni.'

Suetonius in Vita testatur, venisse in manus suas et Elegos sub Horatii titulo, et Epistolam prosa oratione, quasi commendantis se Mæcenati. 'Sed utraque,' inquit, 'falsa puto. Nam elegi vulgares, epistola autem obscura, quo vitio minime tenebatur.' Auctor libri de Orthographia, qui Bedæ vulgo tribuitur, p. 2800. edit. Putschii: 'Nonnulli veterum ipsa carmina soles nominare, sicut Horatius in principio cujusdam voluminis, quod ita exorsus est: 'Soles meos omni Ecclesiæ (Barth. LII. 4. legit Etesiæ) vestræ commendo.'' Et Maro: 'sæpe ego longos Cantando puerum memini me condere soles.'

Scholiastæ veteres.

Multos Grammaticos veteres interpretes nacta sunt Horatii Carmina, sed quorum ætas definiri non potest. Primo loco ponitur in edd. Acron, cui præfert interpretandi solertia Porphyrionem Vavassor de vi et usu verborum quorundam. Henr. Stephanus testatur, in Ms. Pomponium Porphyrionem appellari. Ceterum sunt magis excerpta ex eorum commentariis, quam commentarii ipsi, iique etiam, ut in aliis quoque factum, interpolati ab iis, qui ista excerpsere. Porphyrionis quidem Scholia se longe pleniora habere scripsit Emendationum L. I. c. 14. eaque se editurum promisit. Scholia autem Anonymi edidit primus Cruquius in sua Horatii editione. Ea similia ceteris judicat Barthius Advers. XLII. 22. nec magni faciebat T. Faber Epp. I. 2. II. 54. Habent tamen non pauca, quæ in ceteris Scholiis antiquis non reperiuntur, et tamen ad intelligendum Horatium utilia. Scholia inedita extant in Bibl. Franequerana, teste Gutberletho de Saliis pag. 9. Grævius etiam in Lect. Hesiod. c. 17. affert locum e Scholiaste suo inedito. Quæ in edd. Basil. addita sunt veterum Grammaticorum Scholia, ea sunt excerpta et collecta e libris Grammaticorum superstitum.

ÆTAS I. s. NATALIS. 1470—1500.

Quæ ab ed. principe primave Zaroti profecta nutritores habuit Christophorum Landinum, eundemque interpretem, Raphaëlem Regium, et Alex. Minutianum, qui etiam veteres interpretes Acronem et Porphyrionem adornavit, Jo. Franc. Philomusum, Anton. Mancinelli, et Jac. Locher, Germanum.

1470 Editio princeps, 4. sine loco et anno, sine titulo s. indice, sine typographi nomine adeo, habet in fine additos versus:

Hoc quicunque dedit Venusini carmen Horatî,
Et studio formis correctum effinxit in istis,
Vivat; et æterno sic nomine sæcula vincat
Omnia; ceu nunquam numeris abolebitur auctor.

1 Catalogus Edd. Q. H. F. ab an. 1476. ad an. 1739. quæ in bibl. Jac. Douglas, Coll. Med. Londin. Socii honor. et S. A. S. asservantur, Lond. 4. prodiit.

2 Bibliotheca Horatiana, s. Syllabus edd. Q. H. F. interpretationum, versionum, ab an. 1470. ad an. 1770. Lips. 1775. Editor, qui fuit J. W. Neuhaus, adjutus maxime catalogo bibl. Horatianæ, quam ill. Comes Fr. Lud. de Solms, Elect. Sax. Comes Consistorianus, possidet, fere 800. edd. et scripta ad Horatium pertinentia complectentis, seriem longe copiosiorem instruxit, sed et multa admisit haud satis in hisce literis versatus, quæ clarissimus Horatii illustrator Christ. Dav. Jani in selectiori Ind. edd. Hor. Tomo I. Horatii a se recensiti pag. XXII-LXXIII. emendavit.

Haud tamen editor suo consuluit, cùm id hodie ambigatur. Mich. Maittarius (annal. typogr. T. I. p. 292. ed. II.) ex typographia Ant. Zaroti Parmensis, qui Mediolani anno circiter 1470. excudere cœpit libros, prodiisse conjicit, ob typos similes iis, quibus post Zarotus usus est, quamvis iisdem rudiores minusque cultos. Sunt vero etiam, quod J. M. Gesnerus in præf. Horatii sui observat, 'ejus formæ, quam Jensonius adhibuit, sed paulo minus cultæ, et incompositæ; ut appareat, neque matrices fuisse ita perfectas, ut fuere Jensonianæ, neque ita accuratam versuum dirigendorum rationem.' Gesnerus, qui eam contulit, sic describere pergit: 'Porro literæ nullæ initiales, sæpe f longum in fine vocis positum, &c. Volumen constat quinternionibus, i. e. quinque plagulis (semiplagulas vulgares æquantibus) duplicatis, ut oriantur denorum foliorum libelli, ita consuti deinde, ut in mediæ plagulæ sulco agglutinata sit tenuis virga membranacea, quæ fila contineat, et firmitatem præstet codici. Folia ipsa non signata neque literis neque numeris, custodes nulli, nullum registrum, literæ sæpe transpositæ; infantia denique artis, et operarum ruditas undique apparet. Voces vel omissæ, vel cum ipsius metri pernicie permutatæ, fidem faciunt, non præfuisse editioni grammaticum, sed simpliciter exemplum suum, i. e. scriptum codicem, secutos esse typographos. Unde illud consequitur, ut, quæ bonæ sunt lectiones, eas ab antiquo codice, non ab ingenio correctoris esse, intelligamus.' Hactenus Gesnerus.

ÆTAS IV. LITIGIOSA, TANDEM ECLECTICA

Antesignanos habet hæc ætas Jac. Talbotium, et Guil. Baxterum, Anglos; quos secutus est Rich. Bentleius, illis major, sed emendator ultra quam decet audax, cum Petro Burmanno, Batavo; superatus tamen fere acerbius ab Alex. Cuningamio, Anglo. Princeps post illos incessit Natalis Steph. Sanadon S. J. Promereri dein de Horatio conati sunt Georg. Wade et Jo. Jones, Angli, J. M. Gesnerus, Baxteri quidem assecla, sed is, ut inter eum et Bentleium medius sit: novissime Lud. Poinsinet de Sivry, Gallus, et qui tandem omnium criticis curis usus præ ceteris, quamvis copiosius justo, illustrare Horatium aggressus est, Christ. Dav. Jani.

1699 Q. H. F. Opera, ad optimorum exemplarium fidem recensita; accesserunt variæ lectiones, quæ in libris Mss. et eruditorum commentariis notatu digniores occurrunt. Opera et studio Jac. Talbotii. Cantabr. typis Acad. Imp. Jacob. Tonson. 4. R. Bentleius judicat, Talbotium non male de Nostro meritum esse. Ceterum in hac splendide impressa editione textus Horatii summa fide, diligentia, et cura recensitus est.

Baxter. Lond. 8. Nullis Baxterus usus est Mss. sed vulgata lectione pro fundamento posita ex commentt. animadverss. interdum et ex ingenio textum constituit. Excerpsit, quod tamen majori delectu fieri potuit, veteres interpr. et in his etiam quædam emendavit; ceterum ipse miser est interpres, sensu quippe et ingenio poëtico destitutus; dilogias aucupatur, ubique etymologias ex vett. linguis, Punica, Celtica, Britannica propinat lectoribus. Fecit tamen species quædam ingeniosi acuminis, et odium Bentleii superbioris critici, ut in honore haberetur Baxterus. Hæc fere cl. Jani de eo judicat.

Mss. quam ex suspicione, amplius 800. locis Horatium vel emendavit, vel exagitavit. Hinc ipse nactus est adversarios, partim acerbos, partim bene armatos. Primus quidem fuit Anonymus, cujus extat 'Aristarchus ampullans in curis Horatii,' auctore Philargyrio Cantabr. Londin. 1712. 8. Alterius, ejusque ludimagistri Nottinghamiensis, Rich. Johnsoni est 'Aristarchus Antibentleianus.' Nottingham. 1717. 8. Is quidem acerbior fuit, quam valens doctrina. Alex. dein Cuningamius vindex extitit Horatii; neque non ingenio et doctrina, qua pollebat, his, qui in Horatio sapiunt, Bentleium superasse videtur, nonnunquam paulo superbius in superbum egit. Blandinio antiquissimo Cruquii et Pierio Valeriano, sibi informavit. Quamvis autem odio Bentleii ad superbiam vertisse videatur, emendationes tamen ejus censentur doctissimæ esse et ingeniosissimæ, sæpe, ut cl. Jani existimat, si ad leges artis criticæ excutiantur, pro unice veris lectionibus habendæ. Etiam ejus audacia videtur melior, quam aliorum indocta modestia; unde ipsum unum omnium, qui in Horatium scripserunt, criticorum principem, ipsique Bentleio anteferendum, pronuntiare haud dubitat Jani.

Traduction d'une ancienne hymne sur les fêtes de Vénus, avec des remarques critiques sur la même piece. Paris. 2 tom. 4.

— Eadem, ibid. 8.—Ed. princeps. Sanadonus quidem, ut verbis cl. Jani utamur, 'in textu Horatii constituendo cum Lambinum, Cruquium, Torrentium, aliosque, qui Codd. Mss. usi sunt, consuluit, tum multas Bentleii emendd. sibi vindicavit; sed omnium maxime Cuningamium secutus est, etiam ubi is ultra lineas processit. Attamen et multæ emendd. ipsi propriæ sunt.' Omisit vero nonnulla carmina, et interdum quosdam versus resecuit, castitati consulturus. Interpretatio Gallica omnium est princeps. In notis non solum loca obscuriora egregia doctrina illustravit, sed et artificium virtutesque poëticas alto judicio et sensu elegantiæ explicavit; carmina tamen ad annos suos revocando sæpe forsan aberravit, ordinem certe vulgatum pervertit: nimis etiam subtiliter interdum et delicate venustates Horatii resecat: denique, pro ingenii sui luxuria, nimis allegoriæ deditus, etiam ea, quæ ex Græco exemplo ducta sunt, ad rem Romanam, Augusti familiam, et tempora refert. De his edd. pluribus exposuit clar. Th. Christ. Harles in vita Nat. Steph. Sanadoni, in vitis Philol. vol. III. p. 63. sq.

RUSSICÆ.

Utrum versio Carminum Horatii Russica per Eliam Kopiewicz, cujus mentionem faciunt Commentarii Trevoltini, (Mémoires de Trévoux) an. 1711. p. 1657. unquam lucem viderit, dubitat Fabricius Bibl. Lat. Tom. I. p. 249.

Satiras quidem Horatii Iwan Borkow, in linguam Russicam, ligato sermone, nuper cum notis secundum Teutonicam versionem transtulisse, comperimus ex Diariis Literariis.

PLURES editores, commentatores, et interpretes, ni fallimur, quam ullus alius Scriptorum Classicorum, occupavit Horatius; et in iis exponendis felix et elaborata est, ut jam vidimus, Notitia Literaria Bipontinorum. Multa tamen restant, quæ huic acervo addi possint. At nec nos magna profitemur: hæc vero nostra, qualicumque successu collecta, cum Bipontinis nunc aggredimur colligare; etsi, ut probabile est, in tanta editionum multitudine enumeranda, tædium lectorem jam invaserit.

Quod ad Editionem Principem spectat, quænam ista revera sit, non disputatur, sed de vero ejus typographo: de quo vide Dibdin. in Biblioth. Spencer. vol. I. p. 63. Hæc editio sic memoratur in Biblioth. Askeuiana: 'Editio princeps, sine anno, loco, vel impressoris nomine, liber rarissimus, editoribus incognitus, exemplar pulcherrimum.' Editoribus vero liber nunc bene cognitus est.

Inter editiones primarias, nempe Antonii Zaroti, numerat Harlesius unam anni 1471. adjicit vero in parenthesi: 'ex catalogo tantum librorum venalium quodam.'

Horatii Opera omnia. Per Arnoldum de Bruxella, Neapol. 1474. 4to. Hujus editionis, ut fertur, unicum tantum exemplar superstes est, in Bibliotheca Spenceriana asservatum. Describitur a Dibdino in Suppl. ad Bibliothecam Spencerianam, Lond. 1823. 8vo.

Horatii Odarum Lib. IV. Ep. Lib. I. Carmen Sæculare, et Ars Poëtica, editore Jo. Aloysio Tuscano, sine loco, anno, et typographo, sed, ut putatur, Romæ excusa, circa annum 1475. Audiffredi (in Catal. Editt. Roman. p. 413.) existimat prodiisse hanc editionem ex officina Barthol. Guldinbeckii.

Multus est editor Bipontinus (de editione sub anno 1520.) de laudibus Geo. Fabricii, qui 'Horatio,' ut ait, 'operam egregiam navavit,' &c. At quidem mire errat, ut videtur, nam 'Geo. Fabricius Chemnicensis, magnis utique viris annumerandus, natus a. 1516.' Centuria Fabriciorum, scriptis clarorum, a Jo. Alberto Fabricio, Hamb. 1700. De Horatianis Geo. Fabricii sic Jo. Albertus, p. 30. 'In Horatium Lips. 1571. 1578. 1588. 1605. 8vo. et veteres Horatii interpretes ab eo recensiti, 1555. 1580. fol.'

Horatii Opera, cum comment. Parthenii, 4to. Ven. apud Aldum, 1585. Biblioth. Askeuiana, p. 71.

Certain selected Odes of Horace Englished. By John Ashmore. 1621.

Edit. Aurel. Allobrogum, 4to. 1640. extat in Biblioth. Bodleiana.

Thomæ Creechii versio recusa est Lond. 1688.

Baxteri ed. celeberrima recusa Lond. 1733. 8vo.

Et notatu digna est hæc editio, vel hæ editiones, non solum ut quæ exhibent bonam versionem, etsi liberalem, sed alia quædam, Horatii lectoribus utilissima, quæ frustra in aliis Anglicis versionibus quæras; nempe, varias Bentleii lectiones, Douglasii Editionum Horatii Catalogum, una cum multis bonis annotationibus, et critica in Horatii Opera Dissertatione.

Doctus vero editor, suo Museo inclusus, non satis codices secutus est, et plus quam satis conjecturis indulsit: idem vero sæpe sagax et felix. Fuit in animo alios poëtas, tam Græcos quam Latinos, simili forma concinnare: at morte præreptus multum deflendus obiit, Bione, cum Moscho, et Virgilio tantum prelo commissis, 1795-1796.

Criticæ quædam Observationes in Horatium, subjectæ poëmatiis partim Latine scriptis, partim redditis, per Gilb. Wakefield, Coll. Jes. socium, Cantab. 1776. 4to. min.

Rene D'Auber de Vertot, in Dissertatione de Characteribus Augusti, Horatii, Agrippæ, et Mæcenatis, cum aliis consimillimis, una cum Observationibus in Opera Horatii, per Comitem de Shaftesbury, Lond. 1740. 4to.

Quod ad stylum Horatii spectat, extant quædam in Epistolis elegantibus Fitzosborn (Melmoth), Lond. 1758. 8vo. et in obss. de Satiris Horatii, a Beattie, et in annotationibus Thomæ Harmer, in Observationibus suis valde mirandis in varias sententias Sacrarum Scripturarum, &c. Lond. 1787. 8vo. Vol. III. et IV. et in Ogilvii Observationibus in Poësim lyricam Horatii præmissis Poëmatibus suis, Lond. 1762.

De Metris Horatianis addas, 'De Metris, quibus usus est Horatius Lyricus,' in Roberti Wyttyntoni Lichfeldiensis secunda Grammaticæ parte, &c. Lond. per Wynandrum de Worde, 1515. 1524. Vid. Herberti Typogr. Antiq. vol. 1. p. 151-166. et Palmeri Hist. Typograph. p. 348.—Metra etiam Horatiana, a Christoph. Ware, Lond. 1690. 8vo. et de Metris Horatianis in Libro, cui tit. Latin Primer, a Ricardo Lyne.—Remarks on the Latin Alcaic and Sapphic Metre, as exhibited in the Odes of Horace, Lond. 1824.—Sketch of the Scansion and Structure of the Alcaic Stanza in Horace; in Classical Journal, vol. XI. p. 351. a J. T. (Jacobo Tate, Richmondiensi,) viro doctissimo, et harum rerum peritissimo.

De quibusdam aliis scriptis, Germanicis et Belgicis, quæ illustrant Horatium, separatim ab operibus, et quæ non habent locum in Bipontina Notitia, et in his nostris additamentis locum non inveniant, commode consulatur Harlesius, in Supplement. ad Brev. Notitiam, &c. p. 199. et deinceps.

Hactenus, et forsan satis, de Horatii admiratoribus et panegyristis: at simul fuerunt, qui eundem non adeo fuisse poëtam in omnibus partibus absolutum existimarunt, ut nulla vexaretur censura. Fuerunt certe Horatio-Mastyges, qui Horatium nimiæ erga Romanæ libertatis parricidas adulationis, nimiæ in amoribus lasciviæ arguere parati sunt. Hinc forsan est, quod, præ timore Inquisitionis, quædam partes Horatii raro aut nunquam ab Hispanicis editæ sunt; et hinc apud alias gentes castratæ illæ, quæ appellantur, editiones Horatii, ob maximam illam reverentiam quæ pueris debetur. Et apud quosdam recentiores valuit opinio, quod melius sit sequi quosdam Germanicos, imaginatione magis discursiva, et etiam Lopez de Vega Hispanici Extemporalia, quam Horatium, studiose nimis elaboratum. Multa præterea reprehenderunt Julianus Cæsar Scaliger, Perrault, et Anglicus quidam censor, ut notatur a Bipontinis, quibus, ne plura dicamus, addan-tur quæ F. Sayers, M. D. Norvicensis, protulit in Disquisitionibus Metaphysicis et Literariis, 8vo. Lond. 1798.

De Imitatoribus Horatii quædam subjungemus. Horatius enim adeo abundat deliciis, ut non miremur, si multi fuerint ejus imitatores: immo fuerunt pæne innumeri. Ex multis pauca accipiamus. Tasso cum aliis Lyricis Italicis multa ex ore Flacci nostri libaverunt; nec minus illi qui Latini Italici vocantur, sive artem poëticam, sive lusus amatorios, sive res sacras tractaverint; ut Hieronymus Vida, de Arte Poëtica, Cardinalis Barbarini, in Poëmatiis, cum aliis sui sæculi. Similiter Galli, a Marot usque ad Boileau et Joh. Baptist Rousseau. Et fortasse critici eorum, præcipue quod ad res dramaticas spectat, eum nimis secuti sunt. Germanicis subjungimus, 'Odæ Horatianæ in aliud genus carminis versæ,' Amst. 12mo. 1697. 'Paraphrases Horatianæ,' Amst. 12mo. 1699. et quidem præter Horatii editiones, versiones, et quæ ex professo imitationes sunt, omnes pæne modos Horatianos Germani suis poëmatibus aptaverunt.

Quod ad nostrates spectat, omnes pæne elegantioris venæ poëtæ quædam Horatiana metrice verterunt, vel ex professo Horatium imitati sunt. Inter hos eminent Miltonus, Couleius, B. Jonson, Dryden, Prior, Otway, Fanshaw, Beaumont, Addisonus, Thomas Brown, cum aliis minoris famæ. Inter eos qui ex professo Horatii imitatores extiterunt numerandi sunt, Oldhamus, de Arte Poëtica, et in Satiris; Comes de Roscommon, de Arte Poëtica; Popius, in Epistolis suis Moralibus, et Satiris; et Nevellius, Collegii Jesu Cantab. quondam socius. Et quidem ex quo tempore (a. 1775.) Gulielmus Brown, Eques Auratus, Horatii imitatoribus aurea donavit præmia, multas præclaras Odas Vati Venusino consecravit Cantabrigia; ut satis testantur Carmina præmiis donata, ed. 1817. et eximii T. Tweddell prolusiones, ed. 1793. Quædam etiam istius generis publici juris fecerunt Oxonienses, ut in Musarum Anglicarum Analectis, Oxon. 1692. et magis auctis, 3 voll. Lond. 1714. et in Wartoni Elegiis et Odis, et etiam in aliis Lyricis Oxoniensibus, quæ extant in Miscellaneis Oxoniensibus, ed. Lond. 8vo. 1685.

Multi etiam qui in arte critica præstiterunt, flosculos quosdam ex hortis Horatianis decerpserunt, ut inter alios, Hugo de Grost, (Grotius,) Daniel Heins, (Heinsius,) Petrus Burmannus, Hoffmannus, cum nostris Gul. Jonesio, Equite aurato, et Gilb. Wakefieldo in Poetical Translations from the Ancients, Lond. 1795.

RECENSUS CODICUM MSS.

QUINTI HORATII FLACCI,

QUI IN BIBLIOTHECIS BRITANNICIS ASSERVANTUR.

CLARUS Bentleius fuit criticus, ut omnes norunt, satis audax. Quod ad Horatium spectat, mutavit eum in locis pæne DCCC. Idem vero, si sæpe errabundus, et damnandus, quippe ingenio et conjecturis nimis confisus, extitit simul felix sæpe, ac admirandus. Est enim ubi codices Mss. ipsi misere erroribus, præ scribarum ignorantia, fœdati sunt, quos viri sagacitate et doctrina præditi, atque artis criticæ periti, facile possint deprehendere et emendare. Et revera in editione sua Horatii nullo modo auxilia codicum sprevit Bentleius; immo ad eos multum provocavit, affirmavitque, se optimos omnes Britannicos studiose consuluisse. Nos igitur virum doctum hic loci breviter sequemur.

Codices Cantabrigienses et Oxonienses.

'Ex Britannicis,' ait Bentleius, 'quos omnes ipsi oculis usurpavimus, palmam facile aufert Codex Collegii Reginensis, Oxonii, DCC. annorum et ab omni parte integer: post hunc liber e Biblioth. Regiæ Societatis Londini, alter Petrensis Domus Cantabrigiæ, tertius Collegii Magdal. Oxonii, quartus viri ornatissimi Rogeri Galei, quintus Rev. admodum Episcopi Eliensis, qui sub initiis typographiæ scriptus est eadem plane manu ac alter e Collegio Regio Cantabrigiæ, qui falso præconio Bembinus venditatur. Præter hos et alii plures accesserunt, qui partem tantummodo Horatianorum operum continebant:....alter e Bibliotheca Regia, Sermones et Epistolas Artemque complexus, cui plane geminus est ab eodem librario descriptus in Collegio Magdal. Oxon. Eadem fere habent tria exemplaria ex Collegio nostro S. Trinitatis. Carmina vero et Epodos Bodleiani duo et Vigorniensis; Artem autem Poëticam Vigorniensis alter et Digbeanus (Bodl.) Oxonii.'
